

Phyllis Bank – Girls Recreational Coach

- Current President of the Spencer County Soccer Association, a position held since 2003
- Current Secretary of the Jefferson County Youth Soccer League
- Has been an age group coordinator, field maintenance coordinator and most proudly, a recreational soccer coach for 10 years
- Member of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America as well as being a certified referee.
- Since 2005, has helped run a week long soccer camp that is held at St. Josephs Children's Home, which is a shelter for neglected and abused children.
- Coaching philosophy boils down to the 4 F's: Faith, Family, Friends and Foundation.
- Commitment, discipline, sportsmanship and teamwork are buzz words spoken prior to every practice and game. She has her players strive for excellence – not perfection, and always uphold the integrity of the game. And last but not least, we have FUN – and lots of it.

